ENGLISH PROVERB

Its our mistake if I feel then heart thinks was it mine?
No other heart says its my mistake, then why we didnt sit and discuss the matter, always for everything people discuss even to touch other, you talk with eyes, did we get a chance to talk to each other???

Never comes that time which is passed, you will never return to that second, why you were so hasty? I was sick you know me for so much long time, I am aslo stupid, why didnt you give me second chance, was it that your heart occupied by cosmos gurus you have to let her out ???

Now i see you talk about Swan, then you already know, who you are who you meant now to her, still, your heart is not looking at those tears, deep inside her heart, is it that you lost interest in her, does love fades off so quickly, as age goes, was it a mere responsibility then???

Why you are neglecting from time immemorial her, thinking she is my lady, will do anything for him, yes i will do anything for you my man, as I adore you that much, still you doubt my love, dont have reliance on me, still think do i need to love her, why do you think so is it that i am too old for you and family now???
