

UNPAID WALKING BILLBOARD

© Michael Franz Whitby

Damn!
The paycheck better be oversized
Cashable and lucrative
Since the clothing of your choice are...
...what colours are those anyway!

Damn!
They are practically as big as your ego
Naturally you are part owner of said corporations
Because you couldn't just wear them only for the love of clothing
Some serious preferred shares... maybe?
So you are aggressively doing your ownership share of advertising...

...had a feeling you may have bypassed clothing
And found sentiments emblazoned within your flesh...
...please tell of the mistake of observer' assumptions
Since you don't partake in any illicitness of the drug culture

Damn!
Wrong again...
...tattoos'...
...doing all that just for the love of fashion statements
You dumb...
...not sufficiently chastened for being an idiot
Wearing clothing on your body with the logos of...
...tattoo imbedded permanently within your flesh...
...with no monetary gain for your efforts
You must be a fool!
And ones that are the size of your head

Damn!
You do look...
...stylistic don't give full summary!
