

CATS' MEOW

Michael Franz Whitby

From a tender age boys understood females were different
So they enjoyed their company
Boys learned early to enjoy a fighting match of two young girls
And after their development of breasts - they enjoyed even more
Evolving to girls fighting in braless wet t-shirts
To mud wrestling

The rotation of life from what is seen on television
To the real world, the ins and outs are the grey areas of confusion
Society has given and taken away rights and freedom
While in the same breath
Someone is making 'lots of money'
There is no ill feeling about selling a fight
Especially between two female competitors
Why not?
Our shared society has done this... and it's getting worse
Imagine!
Two females in a ring fighting
All the things they have learned from kindergarten - not to do
They do - all rounded-up - into this total act of brutality
But for many - so easy to watch...
...audience of males!
What are we saying about our population and ethics?

Girls breaking another girl's arms
Chocking until face turns different shade in pigmentation
Kick to the face!
The female face - where hours of one's life is spent aiding in beautification
Getting kicked repeatedly, purposely just imagine that

While males, who have always enjoyed female fights - sit and applaud
But in the crowd there are females enjoying this venue also
The fighting by their peers often more brutal
Than their male counterparts of the same venue

At this stage of the game it's a niche market for...
...the ultimate cats' fight!
Mixed martial arts, kickboxing
And the standard format of traditional boxing
Wrestling, kung-fu, jujitsu and the occasional swear word
Thrown in for added flavour

In the Western countries or according to some calling locations' first world
Well, on this planet...
...most of the population is females
They are now majority income earners
They are more educated, than the average male counterpart
They can vote
They can be leaders of nations

And now they are fighting for entertainment
For the cause of most evil on this earth'...
...money!

So, whatever makes you happy?
The blood or the...
Females know the missing...
