

REPORT BEYOND THE NEXT JOURNEY

© Michael Franz Whitby

Could you forgive yourself...
...if in 500 years of future history no one spoke your name
Ones that know better now - could not!
So for your path to serenity, get that 'abundance feeling' now
It's inside you waiting, to be released - legendary bound...

...in the not too distant future
A minute may seem like a 100 years
And since everybody is unique
Ones' uniqueness is ones' legacy...

...as the age of these technologies slow down
Becoming less of importance
You have to remain in charge
Preserving your kinship - for ones' not yet born
Happy Birthday to you...
...Happy Birthday!

Could you forgive yourself...
...if census was revisited and you were not in the count
And while new museums get erected
No one made mention of your existence...

...don't just live in a place...
...in a time
Live in a moment of foreverness
Since your ancestry past
Should consist of more than paint and a brush
Your time must be a page out of future history
For the world's futurers' to know
Where you hailed from...

...in doing these feats
Follow the footsteps of no one but your own
That's following the ideal naturalized one...

...invisible individuals are amongst the living
Why be here and attain such status
Looking for your remains, should be made easy
And if one is tried and true to that future event
The one called death!
Then your legacy reunion will be more than just nostalgia
As they begin in the near future sorting by names!